Three Australians and three Maoris' are travelling by train to a Rugby match at the World Cup in England. At the station, the three Aussies each buy a ticket and watch as the three Maoris' buy just one ticket between them.

"How are the three of you going to travel on only one ticket?" asks one of the Aussies. "Watch and learn bro," answers one of the Maoris'

They all board the train. The Aussies take their respective seats but all three Maoris' cram into a toilet and close the door behind them.

Shortly after the train has departed, the conductor comes around collecting tickets. He knocks on the toilet door and says, "Ticket please."

The door opens just a crack and a single arm emerges with a ticket in hand. The conductor takes it and moves on.

The Aussies see this and agree it was quite a clever idea. So after the game, they decide to copy the Maoris' on the return trip and save some money (being clever with money, and all that).

When they get to the station, they buy a single ticket for the return trip. To their astonishment, the Maoris' don't buy a ticket at all!!

"How are you going to travel without a ticket?" says one perplexed Aussie. "Watch and learn bro," answers a Maori ..

When they board the train the three Aussies cram into a toilet and soon after the three Maoris' cram into another nearby. The train departs.

Shortly afterwards, one of the Maoris' leaves the toilet and walks over to the toilet where the Aussies are hiding. He knocks on the door and says, "Ticket please."

Last week Mental Health Council of Tasmania chief executive Michelle Swallow spoke about the fear of speaking out about mental illness and the need for state and federal governments to urgently fund support programs.

Her Council fosters strong relationships, cooperation and coordination between consumers, carers and community sector service providers

For good food, good fellowship and the opportunity of service to others,

Here and There

- ◆ Best wishes to Helen who's been unwell, hope you're on the road to recovery.
 - ◆ Chapel Clean up was attended by John, Dick S, Kerry and Reg. The place was cleaned up and a load taken to the tip. You can even walk down the red carpet now.
- But we need to confirm, - do we get rid of—large BBQ, trestles, salamander, scales, some benches,?
- ◆ An extra BBQ day at Anaconda this Saturday. Thanks to those who've offered to help.
 - ◆ Five members will be attending District Assembly -Dick, Reg, Glen, Kerry and Suzanne.

A plea from Rockie Lee, Rotary Youth Exchange Chairman

Things are very BAD for youth exchange at present. We NEED your help desperately.

We have received 9 applications from students to be hosted this year and to date we have only had two Rotary Clubs who have agreed to host.

We are desperately seeking 7 more clubs to host a student otherwise I am going to have to advise their Districts that they will not be able to come to our District. What an absolute disgrace on our part.

There are too many Rotarians/Rotary Clubs who 'talk the talk' but don't seem to be able to 'walk the walk'. Please, I am basically begging you, to please reconsider hosting a student this year. If you are able to find that you are can have a 'change of heart', then please contact our new Inbound Student Coordinator, Paul Jack at cpjack@bigpond.com as soon as possible
