A young man shopping in a supermarket noticed a little old lady following him around. If he stopped, she stopped. Furthermore she kept staring at him.

She finally overtook him at the checkout, and she turned to him and said, "I hope I haven't made you feel ill at ease; it's just that you look so much like my late son." He answered, "That's okay."

"I know it's silly, but if you'd call out 'Good bye, Mom' as I leave the store, it would make me feel so happy." She then went through the checkout, and as she was on her way out of the store, the man called out, "Goodbye, Mom."

The little old lady waved and smiled back at him. Pleased that he had brought a little sunshine into someone's day, he went to pay for his groceries.

"That comes to $121.85," said the clerk. "How come so much? I only bought 5 items." The clerk replied, "Yeah, but your Mother said You'd be paying for her things, too."

Bet you thought this was going to be a tear jerker. Don't trust Little Old Ladies!

A motorist, after being bogged down in a muddy road, paid a passing farmer fifty dollars to pull him out with his tractor.

After he was back on dry ground he said to the farmer, "At those prices, I should think you would be pulling people out of the mud night and day."

"Can't," replied the farmer. "At night I haul water for the hole."

This week .

Welcome to members of the Rotary Club of Kangaroo Bay

Social meeting

Last week Ian Preece manager environment and sustainability at Clarence City Council gave a great talk on developing projects

He also distributed a document that offered some ideas for involvement in the Tranmere walkway project (eg removing feral oysters, removing weeds, taking photo records etc)

For good food, good fellowship and the opportunity of service to others,

May the Lord's name be praised
Amen

Here and There

Suzanne reported that her visit to Clarence High School was followed by request to assist in either 1. Blackout Curtains, 2. Canteen walkway cover, or 3. Memorial Garden

We'll be removing the top table at meetings and encourage everyone to vary their seating each week to increase mingling.

Thanks to all who assisted with last weeks

BBQ's. Not a brilliant fund raiser but some good PR, $690 at K & D and $110 at Howrah

Who could refuse.?

In case you're wondering, George is just hanging on, his fingers are showing a particular pose.

Woolworths Shoreline have been providing 2nd Bite with food on Tuesdays, perhaps they should be told not to bother on Thursdays.

We've been invited to be a part of the 2011 Spring Community Festival on the 8th & 9th of October, expressions of interest must be received by 26th August

Thanks to June for keeping notes on last Thursday's meeting.

Our seats are in - what a lovely view.
