President Glen Woolley Secretary Kerry Tilyard

Tonight — National Youth Forum Hannah Marmion

RYPEN, Laura Tulip and Ella Chivers

Laura and Ella were sponsored by our Club for the 2010 RYPEN seminar last week-end. Ella and Laura are both in grade 10 at Ogilvie High School. They both lead very active lives and later this year as part of the Ogilvie World Challenge Namibia expedition 2010 will travel to that country. The objectives of the group is to aid in the fight against poverty and to provide the school students with an experience of other cultures.

Last week Glen talked about his recent Hawaii trip with his harem. Hawaii disappointed him a little (perhaps because he arrived in the rain). He commented that it was highly commercialised, just like a big Surfers Paradise. Economic situation also seemed a worry— tourist numbers well down. The Arizona memorial impressed— was unique and a highlight.

The girls shopped well ensuring they used their 32kg allowance effectively. Paige fared well. Sounded a great holiday.

Little Tony was 9 years old and was staying with his grandmother for a few days. He'd been playing outside with the other kids for a while when he came into the house and asked her,

'Grandma, what's that called when two people sleep in the same room and one is on top of the other?'

She was a little taken aback, but she decided to tell him the truth. 'It's called sexual intercourse, darling.'

Little Tony said, 'Oh, OK,' and went back outside to play with the other kids. A few minutes later he came back in and said angrily,

'Grandma, it isn't called sexual intercourse. It's called Bunk Beds. And Jimmy's mum wants to talk to you.'

A little boy was waiting for his mother to come out of the grocery Store. As he waited, he was approached by a man who asked,

"Son, can you tell me where the Post Office is?"

The little boy replied, "Sure! Just go straight down this street a coupla blocks and turn to your right."

The man thanked the boy kindly and said, "I'm the new pastor in town.

I'd like for you to come to church on Sunday.

I'll show you how to get to Heaven."

The little boy replied with a chuckle. "Awww, come on...

You don't even know the way to the Post Office!"

You've got to speak this one—

Three Australian tourists were driving through Wales. As they were approaching the town of Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwlllantysiliogogoch, they started arguing about the pronunciation of the town's name. They argued back and forth until they stopped for lunch. As they stood at the counter, one asked the young employee, "Before we order, could you please settle an argument for us? Would please pronounce where we are very, very slowly?" The girl leaned over the counter and said: "Burrrrrrrr, gurrrrrr, Kiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiing".

Here and There

- Never let it be said that the Murrays are poor organisers, They're off to Melbourne for Helen's brothers' 50th wedding anniversary, also one of their children's anniversary. The next day is Basil and Helen's anniversary.
- Suzanne did OK— got married on her birthday.
- "We've arranged a wreath for Anzac Day, Graeme will place at the Clarence ceremony.
- .Noel's unwell at the moment, our best wishes are with him.
- Dick feels he should have left home—a kitchen rebuild is a hassle.
- Who was it said "All Swan supporters dribble "when Suzanne proudly displayed her Swans bib ?
- President Glen's seems keen to setup a trip like the SCRAGS team's—let's keep it in mind.
- Graeme Farrell represented us at Rosny's Achievers night last Tuesday. Thanks Graeme.
- Malcolm Salier has tended his resignation.

We're helping Salvation Army on Friday b\night with their BBQ for Bellerive School sleep in

We have 5 helping RYDA's activity at the Showgrounds this week.

Join us at Wrest Point on Wednesday 28 April for the screening of 'The Proposal' a fun comedy starring Sandra Bullock and Ryan Reynolds.
A pushy boss forces her young assistant to marry her in order to keep her Visa status in the U.S. and avoid deportation to Canada.

If you'd like to attend contact Kerry by Friday night.

Farewell to the New York GSE Team

Nine members joined Bellerive for our farewell. We won 2 raffle prizes which was a good result. Pictured are Basil and Helen's "girls" who presented them with a wedding anniversary present. Doreene noted that one of the big lessons she learnt was about how effectively older couples related as all their hosts were retired Rotarians.
