DIVORCE versus MURDER

A nice, calm and respectable lady went into the pharmacy, walked up to the pharmacist, looked straight into his eyes, and said, "I'd like to buy some cyanide."

The pharmacist asked, "Why in the world do you need cyanide?"

The lady replied, "I need it to poison my husband."

The pharmacist's eyes got big and he explained, "Lord have mercy! I can't give you cyanide to kill your husband, that's against the law? I'll lose my licence!"

They'll throw both of us in jail! All kinds of bad things will happen.

Absolutely not! You CANNOT have any cyanide!"

The lady reached into her purse and pulled out a picture of her husband in bed with the pharmacist's wife.

The pharmacist looked at the picture and said, "You didn't tell me you had a prescription."

The judge glared at the accused. 'So you admit breaking into the dress shop?'

'Yes, your honour.'

'And why was that?'

'Because my wife wanted a dress.'

The judge consulted his notes. 'But it says here that you broke into the same shop three nights in a row.'

'Yes, sir. She made me exchange it three times.'

Here and There

- Lindsay and Jean have a new set of wheels, a Mitsubishi SUV. Jacob suggested it needs sweetening up with some air brushing and speccy transfers.
- Anita George is back home managing the settlement of our Confined Refugees. Suzanne is spending time with her with her Red Cross tasks.
- Thanks to David for his research into the wine market for our raffle prizes. I'm sure it was a labour of love but he made sure he had further opinions hence the wine tasting last week. The local supplier was priced better than the South Australian wine cellars.]
- Richard Wyatt was relieved when he went into a Katherine bottle shop. He wasn't on the banned list—unable to buy wine.
- Our BBQ team at Cremorne last year must have impressed. Santa wants us back this year for another go.
- Who's interested in weekend trip to Melbourne to visit "Love Never Dies" ?
- Thanks for everyone's input on fund raising ideas. Dick's sweet rewards were a nice touch I'm wondering if Glen is a closet North Melbourne supporter he seemed keen to make contact there.

Jacob is organising a BBQ at Howrah Garden Centre on Saturday 13th.

Add your name to the helpers list if you can assist.
